ONE WORLD —

*Lift up your heads and sing,
You who hold the keys to a new world—
A world with a future you alone can fashion.
Many will tell you, "There will always be war,"
But do not listen.
Choose a different path to prove man need not kill man.
Do you think the young of other lands
Want to choose a path apart from yours?*

*They are as war-weary as you.
They want only to build,
To learn to laugh, to count the stars,
To sing as you do with heads held high.
Old World, look up at us: We know the way.
Our feet will walk the road together;
Our tongues will call the word brother to all men,
And we will be One World.*

How many schools do you go to?

One.

How many schools do you consider your own?

One.

How many schools is Ashland High?

One.

Why?

We are One School.

Housed together, we work together, play together;

Stand in line together, sing together, laugh together;

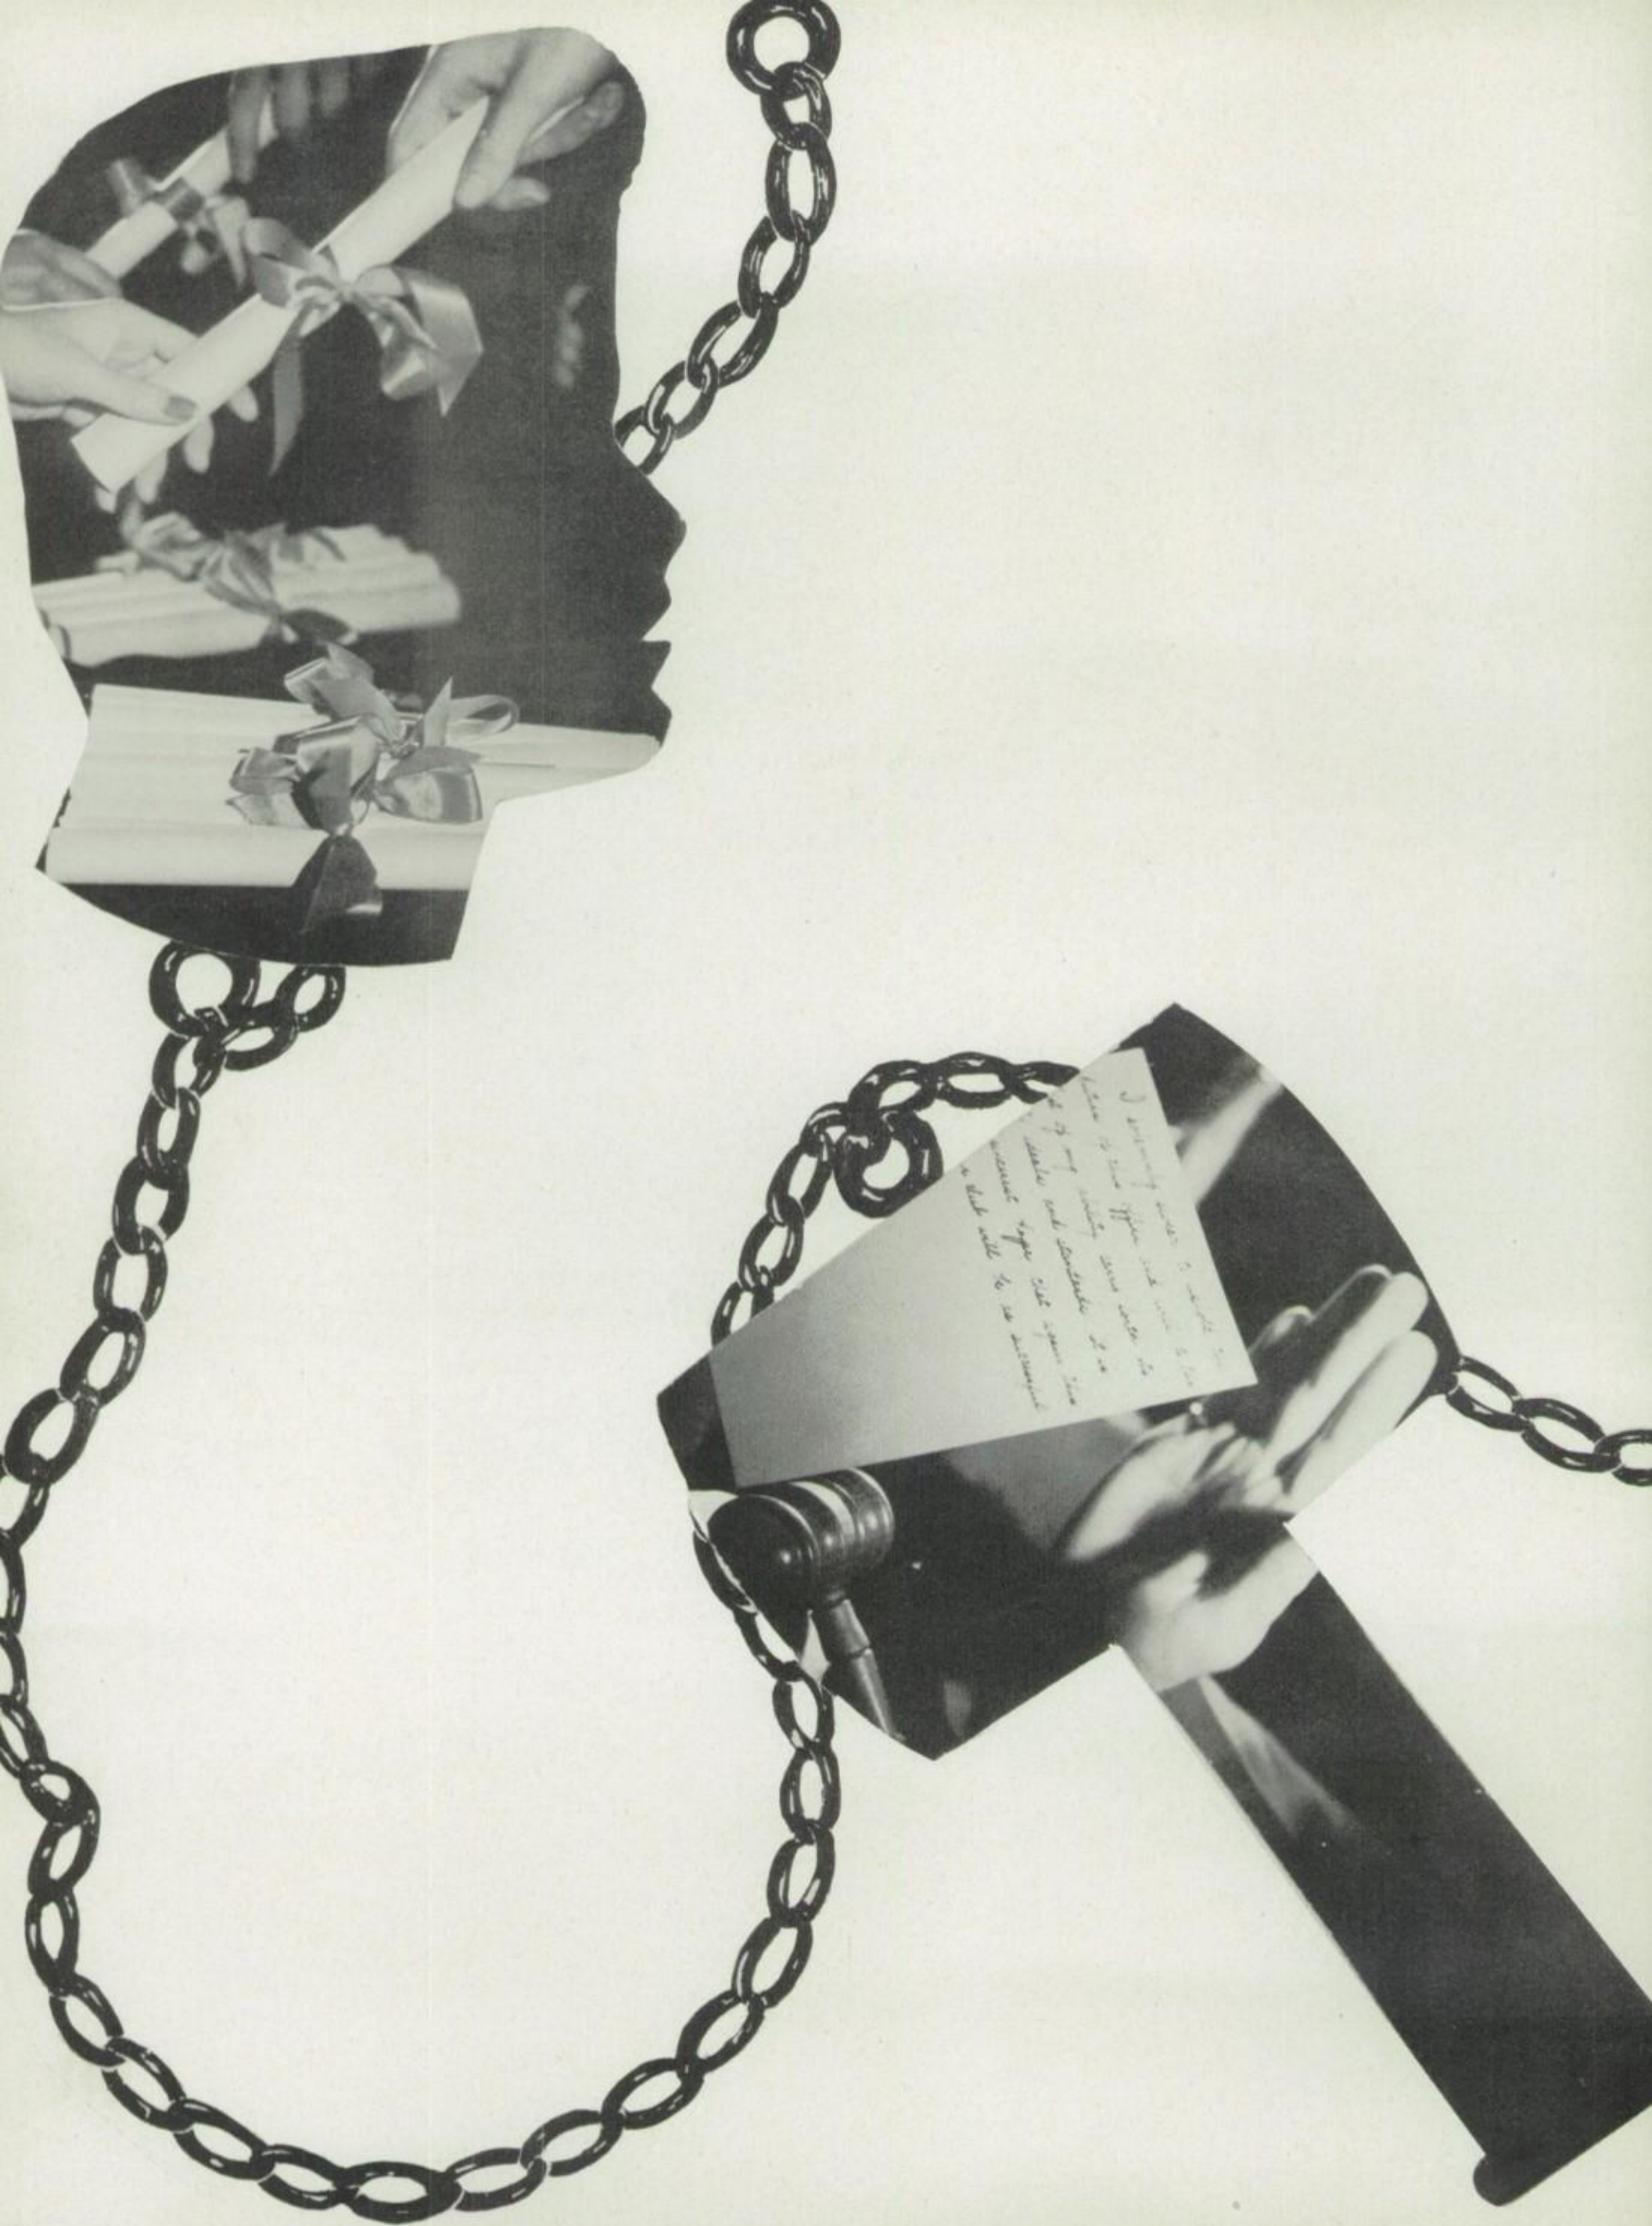

And dread the time when we will be apart.

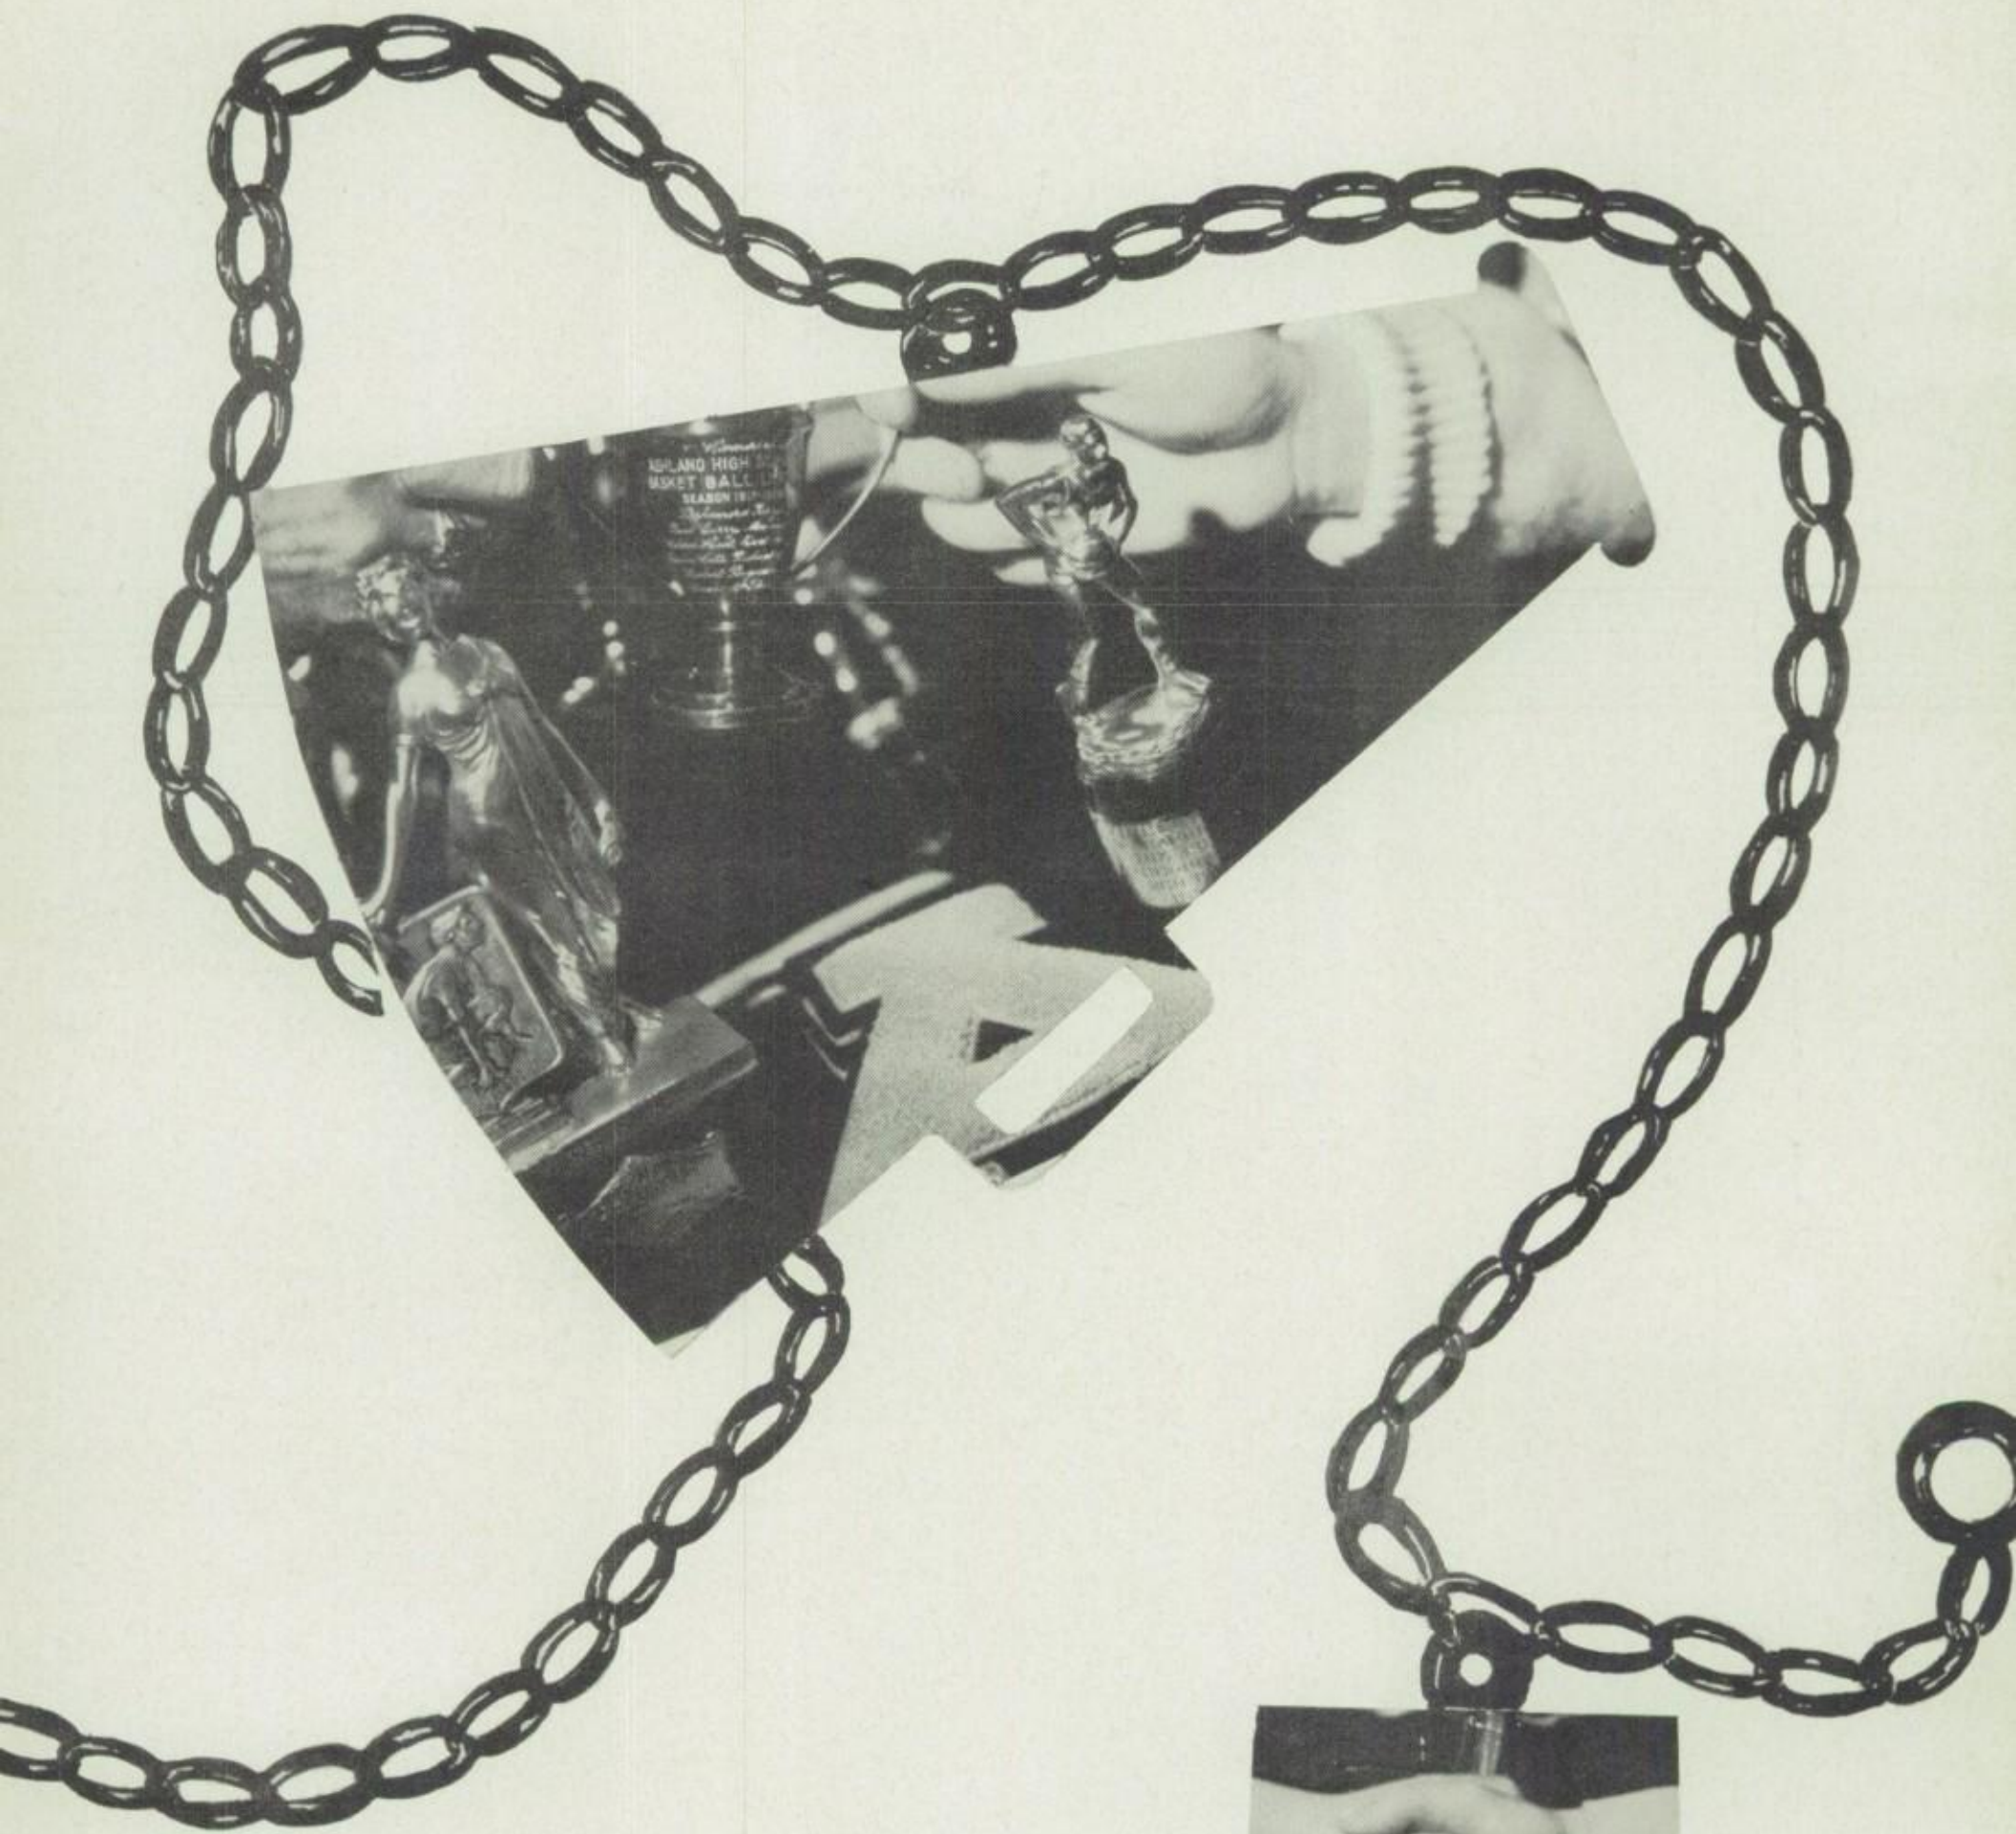

It is like patriotism, but not so big;

Like love, but not so deep;

Like pride, but not so fierce—

This spirit that makes us One School.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

FRANK J. LAUSCHE
GOVERNOR

STATE OF OHIO
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
COLUMBUS 15

January 26, 1945

Mr. Jack Dunlap, Editor in Chief
1945 Ashland High School Guide
Ashland High School
Ashland, Ohio

Dear Mr. Dunlap:

It is with pleasure that I respond to your kind invitation for a few lines concerning your 1945 yearbook theme "One World - One School".

The highest hopes and aspirations of mankind for "One World - One School" can and will be achieved through the medium of educational facilities being made accessible to all. No longer shall we assert that there are mighty and impenetrable barriers shielding us from our more distantly located fellowmen. The achievement of universal understanding through the processes of education, the breaking down of language barriers, the eradication of racial and religious prejudices, and the abolition of nationalistic desires can truly be predicted as the world to be hoped for in the not too distant future.

I congratulate the Senior Class of 1945, and all attending Ashland High School, who have set their sights so high. May you ever strive for "One World - One School" of tolerance, kindness, and love of fellowmen.

Yours very truly,

The 1945
Guide
Ashland High School

Editor- Jack Dunlap
Business Manager- Donna Jean Gordon

Because her bubbling personality makes learning a pleasure;

Because her enthusiasm for literature inspires students to worthy reading tastes;

Because her way of teaching language usage is at once practical and aesthetic;

Because the students of Ashland High School believe in a teacher who believes in them,

The class of 1945 proudly dedicates this book to MISS ELLEN L. CAMPBELL.

*Thru the unknown which is tomorrow,
Thru the new world tomorrow will bring,
These people cast the light.*

Who are they?

What light?

They are your superintendent and principals and their light is forethought and planning as they decide for you and help you to decide yourself.

They are your teachers; their light is the knowledge you are gaining now to help you through the dark days ahead when there is no one to turn to but yourself.

They are you yourself and your fellow students. The lessons in living you learn from each other are invaluable preparations for life after school.

*One torch alone would not do;
You may have wise leaders and no
Wisdom to follow them;
You may follow well and not know how
To live with the kid next door.
Together, united, they will shine
Thru the dark days ahead to show us
One World.*

ARTHUR B. GORSUCH, Principal
Ohio State University, B.S. in Ed., M.A.

*Someone has to run a school;
Not yet does a school run itself.
There must be a someone to act as coordinator
Between grade school and high school—
To help hire teachers and represent
The school to the public:
His name is Superintendent.
We call his aide here at the high school Principal,
And his is the job of deciding the thousand and one
Details that make a school run smoothly.*

*And the someone who helps him is Assistant Principal;
Supervising visual aids and clubs is his job.
And whom do the students report to directly?
The Deans—for tardiness and sassiness,
For "absentness" and prankishness and
Extra help when the going gets tough.
To all of these we turn for guidance
Through our high school journey.*

This is your Board of Education—

The men and women behind your school.

They take your parents' money

And hire Superintendents and Principals,

Maintain modern school buildings,

And in a thousand unsung ways

Provide the means that will make you

A worthy citizen of this community,

State, nation, and world.

ENGLISH

English—

What is it?

What do you get from it?

Nothing—

Only the ability to write—

That's working on the Panorama;

Learning grammar and spelling

To use in essays and letters.

Only learning how to speak—

That means the plays,

Assemblies, daily announcements;

The classroom panels and debates.

Only learning to read—

That comes in literature

With its novels and poems;

Its adventures in reading

About the lives of others.

English—

That's what it is.

MATHEMATICS

Figures numbered the hours for

Washington

At Valley Forge; for MacArthur on

Bataan.

They tell us how much our boys eat,

How many are dead—

Even alive, they are known by numbers.

Here in Ashland High School

You are taught to make numbers tell you

How much you owe the butcher,

How fast light travels,

Why x is sometimes four,

And how far it is to Moscow.

Numbers will tell how soon the Final Peace will come—

And how long it lasts.

FINE ARTS

*There is a desire in all of us
To see and create the beautiful.
With paints and canvass,
Chisel and awl,
With strings and voice and woodwinds,
We try, our only reward a personal glow.
If only we could package
The feeling art gives and teaches,
We need never again be bored,
Or cross or hate our fellow men.*

SCIENCE

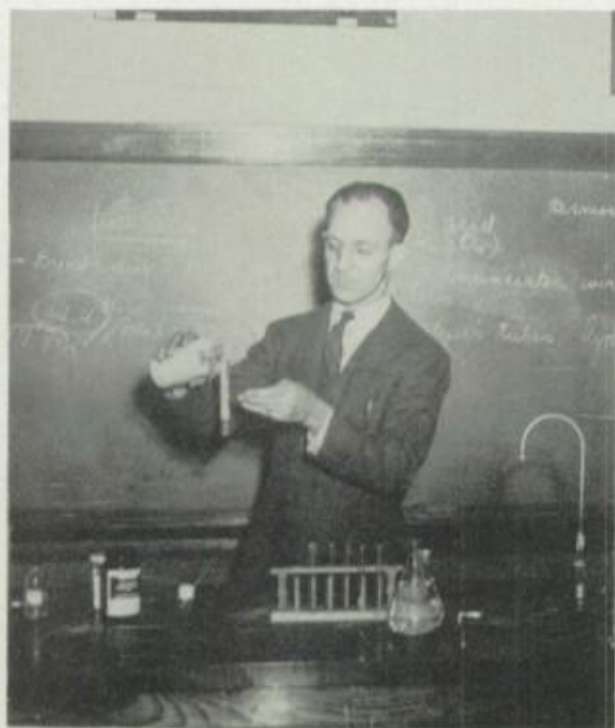

*Delving into the unknown,
Probing the mysterious,
Future scientists experiment,
Dissect, examine, and calculate,
From general science to biology;
From chemistry to physics,
To develop sound theories
About the workings of life
And the universe of which They are a part.*

To continually seek out games,

SOCIAL SCIENCE

*Social science is education for living,
For the sections of the road where it
Will serve you to know how your forefathers
Planned this country,
Who made it what it is today and
why,
To tell you why democracy's dream
Holds more for the common man than
The rival efficiency of one-man rule.
Social science teaches the way to Reach this dream—
One World.*

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

*"Buenos dias, amigo."
"Bon soir, mon ami."
"Quid agis, amice?"
Three ways to say "Hello, friend!"
The world is close now,
Only sixty hours from here . . .
To Anyplace.
How much closer it will be
When, through the study
of languages,
All peoples may understand
Each other's "Hello, friend."*

*The roar of the drill press,
And the clatter of type;
The skritch of the draftsman's pen,
The whirl of an egg beater,
And the phizz of the spray-rig—
To so many boys and girls
Whose feet and hearts
Lead them to the machine shop,
The home ec department,
The drawing and printing rooms,
And the projects of agriculture,
These sounds mean
A start on a job for tomorrow,
A taste of what it will take—
When school and the dependence
Upon parents are left behind—
To earn a living in
A machine-minded world.*

SENIOR COUNCIL

*Graduation is the end of a long, long trail
And the start of a newer, tougher one.
We, the class of 1945, have tried for four years
To reach this goal, not only with the right
Credits, but also with the skills and ideals
Necessary to shape our lives in a war-torn world.
It has not been easy for us, the first
War class of Ashland High, to gain our goal.
Freshmen days were hardly started when
We heard our radios blare the news of war
One chill December afternoon.
The bitter year of defeat and death
That followed was also our sophomore year,
And we tried through bond drives and
Part-time jobs to help our fighting brothers.
With rationing and work and saving,
We struggled into 1944, and the junior class,
With one year to go for our goal.
It was not all work and fight—
There was time for a class play,
"The Bishop Misbehaves."*

*Time to thatch the boys' gym for A South Sea Island Prom.
There were clubs and concerts
And sports and dances and assemblies.
Honors and a job well done marked the close
Of our junior year . . .
And here the tide of battle turned:
We had not fought in vain.
Courage and the will to finish the job
Urged us through our senior year to that goal—
Graduation.
The class has lost many of its members
Along the way, to the Army and the Navy;
But they will be with us in spirit—
In step as we march down the Aisle to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance."
And we who have fought two wars at once
Will take up the challenge of the senior play,
"Tomorrow the World,"
And make tomorrow
One World.*

JUNIOR CABINET

This is the story of a class—

The story of a unity which has been strengthened

By the five years its members

Have known and worked with each other;

Worked through the medium of Class-room activities—challenging each other

To learn more about Latin, chemistry, history;

Worked together on the production of plays:

Encouraged each other to make "Heaven Can Wait"

A smashing success;

Worked together on the athletic field,

Offering each other competition and friendly backing.

While they have learned that a class

Cannot succeed made up only of individuals,

Each striving for selfish personal gain,

They have also found what

Good friends their classmates are—

Through parties and dances

And just carefree get-togethers.

Five years ago, their wondering hearts

And unsure feet led them through a door—

A door which opened to them

A new life of comradeship and happiness—

A fuller life for members of the Class of '46.

JUNIORS

Heaven can wait

But the Juniors won't—

Until, through their achievements

In dramatics and art;

Athletics and scholarship,

They make a name

For themselves and their school.

Dwight Likes

Born Dec. 25, 1928 Died Oct. 7, 1944

In Memoriam

Here was a boy who gallantly proved
That a strong mind can triumph over a weak body.
Imagination carried him to the humming
classroom
And the drive of a teacher's voice.
Imagination took him to assemblies and rallies,
To ball games, dances, and between-classes
chats.
So that, though the sad end had to come,
Yet he could happily say:
"I have lived."

SOPHOMORES

Reaching toward the future

With uncertain fingers,

Gaining self-assurance,

The sophomores develop

Personalities and talents

Which will lead them into

The maturity of senior-dom.

In Memoriam

*It may not be fair to be a moving part of a school—
To know classmates who call you by your nickname;
To know what English is like, what this teacher is like;
To be in a crowd rooting for a quick touchdown;
And to help clap back an entertaining assembly artist—
It may not be fair to live that full a life . . .
And then leave it . . .
Still it may be better . . . to have lived and lost
Than never to have lived at all.*

FRESHMEN

*They stand on the threshold
Of tomorrow,
Looking wonderingly into
A world that includes not only
The studying they have known,
But also J. V. teams and choirs;
First dates and initiations.*

The gavel pounds—the secretary

Reads the roll call—

Another A. H. S. club is in session.

Here, as in the outside world,

Clubs are vital—

Vital in bringing together those people

Who have common interests and ideals,

Vital in helping to unite the school

By teaching its students the value

Of co-operation.

Clubs give to the musicians, the actors,

The home-makers, the tillers of the soil

The opportunity both to advance their special skills

And, through working with others, the art

Of give-and-take.

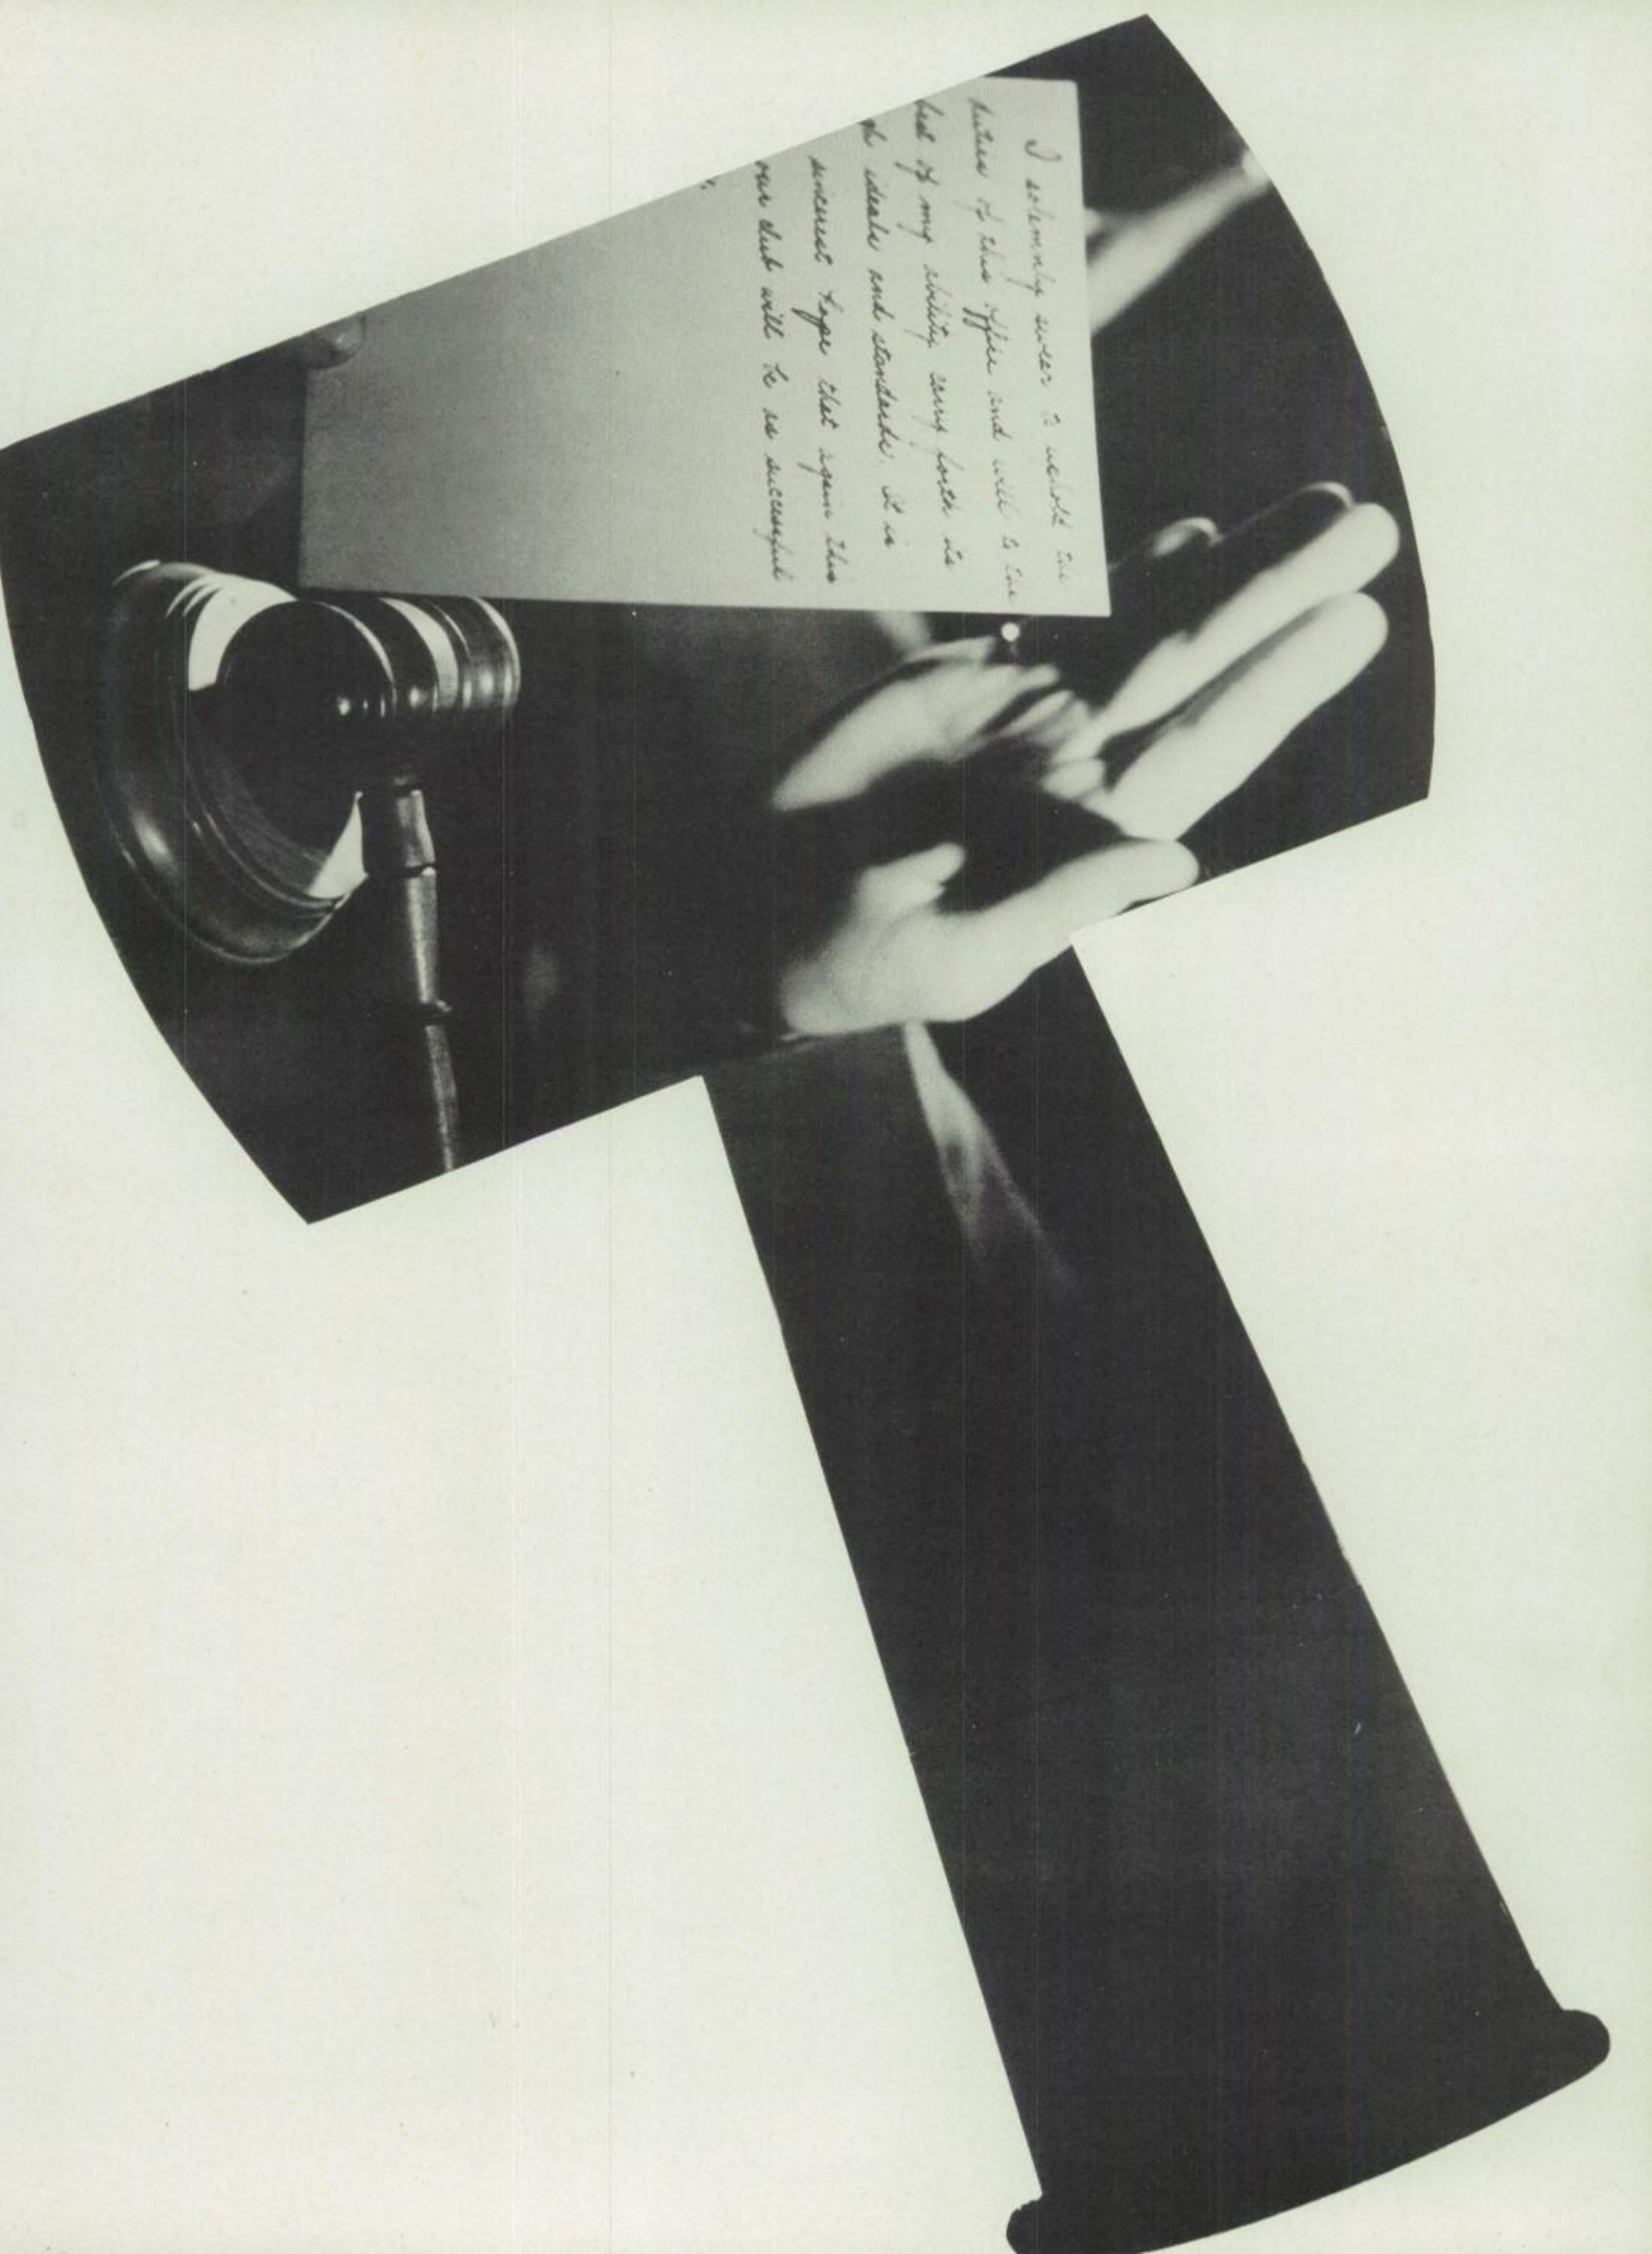

Then, above even these important purposes,

Clubs give that indispensable spirit

Which creates a firm bond

Between student and school.

I solemnly swear to uphold the honor of this office and will to the best of my ability carry forth its ideals and standards. It is my sincere hope that again this year that will be so successful

*A jaunty trumpet, a throbbing drum,
The staccato rattle of the snare—
Heads up—here comes the band,
Your band with trombones on full blare.
For football games, or torch lit nights,
Pert majorette swings a silver metronome;
Then too there is bright twilight music
From this your band, your own.*

CONCERT MASTER Betty J. Richard

There is something to an orchestra—

A grace, an air, a dignity,

That bands could not replace—

And musicians here in A.H.S. give us one.

The symphonies, the well loved airs,

And classics, both new and old,

Are presented for concerts and

Other assemblies, for us to enjoy.

CHOIR

STUDENT DIRECTOR Robert Kreider

*Like the voice of angels,
Solemn, sweet, rising high above
The crowd toward heaven, it would seem,
Floats the music of A Capella Choir.
In solos, or in choral masses,
In hymns or folk tunes bright,
Those who love to sing
Give us our spoken music.*

FIRST ROW: C. Shriver, C. Boyd, B. McCracken, G. Gibson SECOND ROW: B. Brandt, B. Donley, F. Wolf, J. Stockdale, M. Finney, Miss Campbell, adviser THIRD ROW: M. Schaffer, J. Dunlap, D. J. Gordon, C. Reese, R. Warrick ABSENT: L. Wright, G. Hurst, A. Forbes, A. Hurd.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Looking toward the future

With sure feet and willing hearts,

N. H. S. members have been made worthy of this honor

By scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

Their hands have guided honor study halls,

Have become useful in the museum

And on the service honor roll; their ideals

Have made them examples to be followed.

COLLEGE CLUB

For the members of this club,

Graduation is just a beginning.

College Club presents to its members

Deans and representatives from neighboring colleges.

Thru these talks and their own

Discussions, College Club members

Get a line on the college of their choice,

And hope to graduate again.

THESPIANS

Thrilled by footlights and grease paint,

They act, direct, write,

Rehearse and construct scenery

So that the show can go on.

New friendships develop,

New talents are discovered,

New heights are reached

By Thespians—tomorrow's men of the stage.

UM—MMMM

HERE GIRLS!

YOU TELL ME, MISTER

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

*Do you remember those two nights in March?
The 13th and 14th, wasn't it?
When the antics of Cy Moore as Joe Pendleton,
The hero of "Heaven Can Wait,"
With Joe Kaman, who was Max,
Dick Stauffer in the white duck of Mr. Jordan,
Ambassador from heaven, and his helper Bob Kreider,
Kept you howling
Till you thought you couldn't laugh anymore.
You thought, didn't you, that Joe never would find
An acceptable body to exchange for his cremated one.*

*And you won't forget the poignant scenes
Between Joe and Anne "Bette Logan" Garretson,
Both when Joe was still "Mr. Farnsworth,"
And, after Mr. F. objected "up there," Joe became
"Kayo" Murdock—the champion prize-fighter.
Then, too, there were the Memorable supporting roles
Along with the tireless work of committees
And Norma Wilhelm, student director,
Which blended together to make
"Heaven Can Wait" a heaven-sent gift.*

OH! PLEASE DON'T

I'M IN THE PINK

"TYPICAL AMERICANS"

"KEEP QUIET"

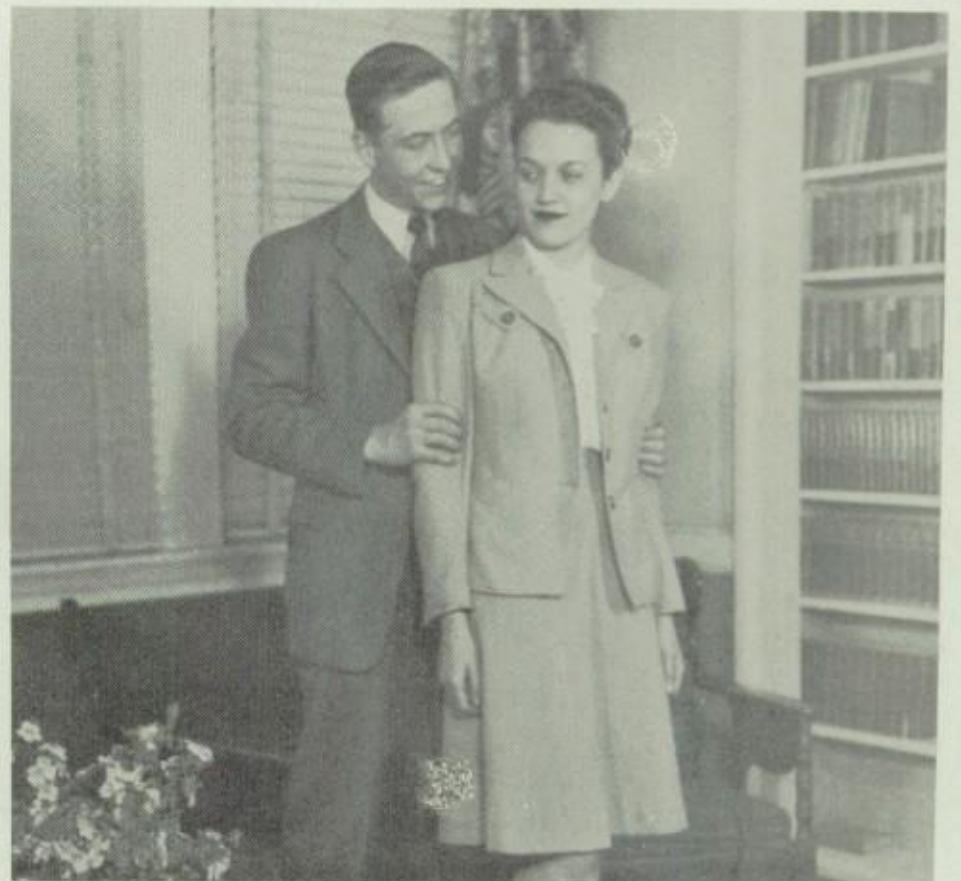

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

*"Today we have Germany—
Tomorrow the World!"
Thus the senior class play
Presents the problem of erasing that idea
From the mind of a young German.
There is his uncle's attempt
To show him what kindness is,
And similar attempts by his aunt and teacher—
A united effort to persuade him
To give up his attitude of racial superiority,
An effort which seems doomed to failure.*

*The boy shows every sign
Of continuing a Nazi career—
Spying, sneering, hating,
Even trying to take
The life of his one champion,
His little cousin,
When she does not please him.
Then, after this act,
He slowly begins to realize
That the Nazi code is false
And that Democracy is true.*

"YOU CANNOT DECEIVE ME HERR MULLER"

"WE CAN'T AFFORD A LONG ENGAGEMENT"

FIRST ROW: Mr. Ballou, adviser; J. Beattie, vice president; K. Hilty, president; L. Fritz, treasurer; J. Kilcher, secretary; M. McWilliams, S. Clem
SECOND ROW: T. L. McLaughlin, P. Spies, M. Shanefelter, A. Stauffer, L. Wygant THIRD ROW: W. Ritter, P. Hetler, E. Bahas, A. Myers.

STUDENT SENATE

*"A government of the people,
By the people and for the people."
The democratic ideal
Our country lives by!*

*The Student Senate
Carries out this theme
By teaching the world's future citizens
What it means to live in a democracy.*

FIRST ROW: D. Taylor, D. Minesinger, D. Botham, B. Halladay, D. Anderson SECOND ROW: D. Echelberger, R. Kohout, J. Semans, D. Tucker, M. Fluke, H. Honaker, T. Withers THIRD ROW: D. Saner, D. Patton, G. Dever, C. Hurst, H. Morgan, E. Weaver.
ABSENT: D. Cumberland.

LIBRARY SERVICE CLUB

Books, books, books—

A school's gold mine of knowledge and pleasure.

With these must go hand-in-hand

The people to sort and handle them.

People to sign them out; to locate swiftly

An assigned reference article.

Without these L. S. C. members

These books would often go unused.

FIRST ROW: C. McCollum, B. Sheppard, P. Henthorne, C. Fair, P. Kiplinger, T. Highman, C. Wells SECOND ROW: B. Clark, D. Workman, J. Kendall, G. Krueger, J. Brubaker, D. Gault, J. Wertz, A. THIRD ROW: A. Hurd, H. Lewis ABSENT: G. Thomas.

USHERS

To serve the high school

By cheerfully greeting and efficiently seating

Guests of the auditorium,

Is the aim of these twelve ushers.

They learn by heart the seats of the house,

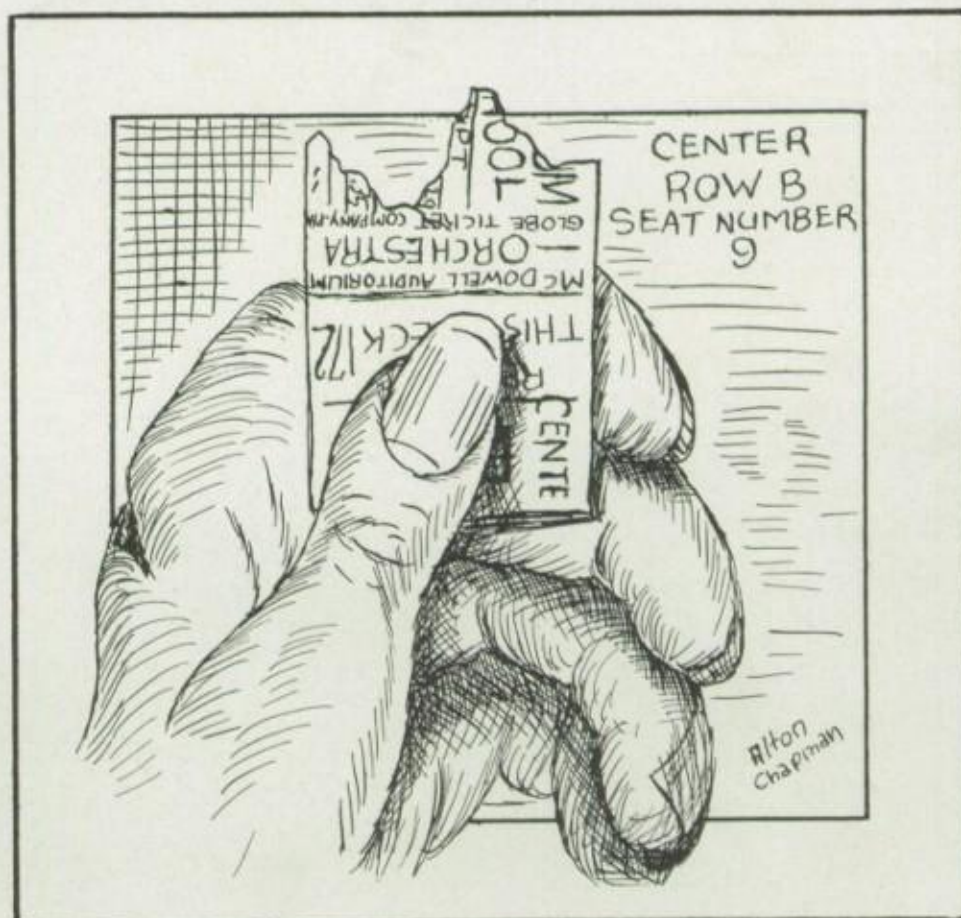

Display poise in securing order,

And in their quiet, efficient, well-mannered way

Enable the show to go on.

THIS WAY, PLEASE

FIRST ROW: B. Baird, B. Strang, F. Walters, A. Soles, A. Garretson, M. Barr, L. Lee SECOND ROW: Miss Cragwall, adviser; P. Schaffer, C. Cordell, M. Finney, D. Tarr, B. Brown, B. Brubaker, M. Moritz, G. Vanosdall.

CHEERLEADERS' CLUB

With the flash of feet and the shout of voices,

The Cheerleaders' enthusiasm

Knows no bounds at rallies,

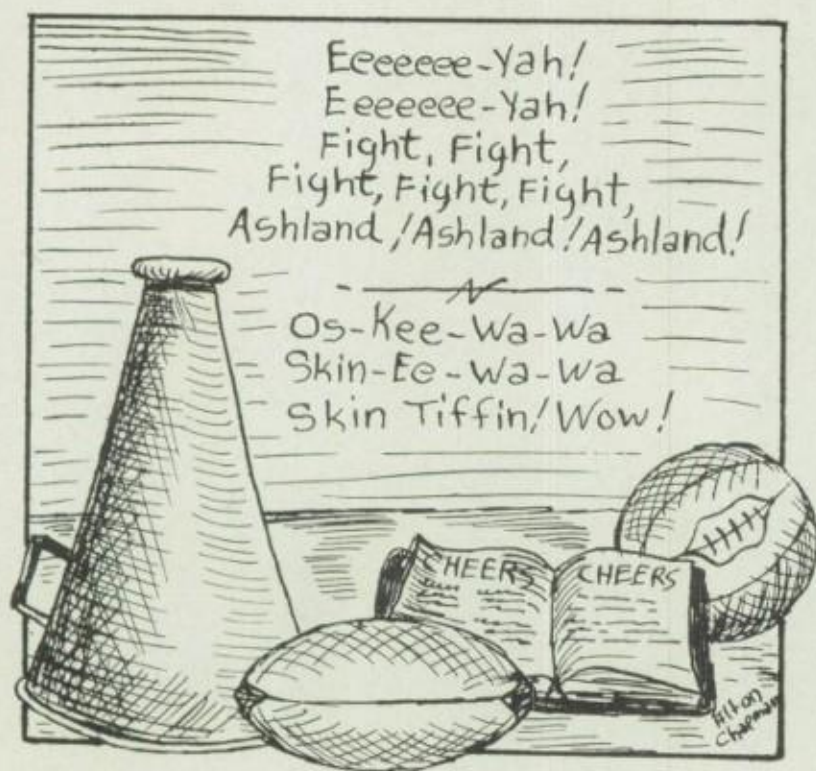

At football games, and basketball games.

For untiring hours they work

To gain the qualities they must have:

Rhythm, suppleness of body, depth of voice,

And a leadership that carries others with them.

MARCHING TO THE FOOTBALL RALLY

FIRST ROW: Miss Sprague, adviser; B. Miller, V. Brownson, N. Hosford, N. Dillon, secretary; E. Byrnes, president; B. McKinley, treasurer; E. Wheeler, vice president; M. Barr, D. Smith, B. JUNIOR GIRL RESERVES

White blouse, sky blue tie—

Candle light on eager faces . . .

Thus begins a Girl Reserve

On her career of fun and service.

Meetings then, both gay and solemn,

Processions, potlucks, dances,

Scrapbooks, Hospital relief, Red Cross work—

A Junior Girl Reserve's memories.

FIRST ROW: M. Rogers, W. Mish, E. Kline, A. Emmons, J. Wolf, M. Ekey, B. A. Dunn, N. Hildebrand, C. McCammon, E. Bahas, P. Harp, E. McDanel SECOND ROW: E. Fluke, V. Schibley, B. Jacoby, S. Estill, J. Metcalf, F. Gerlach, M. Haney, M. Barnhill, P. Cooper, M. Raubenolt.

SENIOR GIRL RESERVES

Older sister to the Juniors,

Working side by side with them,

Wearing the same tie and middie,

Are the Senior Girl Reserves.

Each Christmas and Easter,

Girl Reserves present assemblies—

Candle light and soft music climbing

Skyward with their hopes and dreams.

FIRST ROW: T. McKay, J. Bachman, J. Halladay, G. Hartman, D. Moffett, G. Mason, M. Highman, D. Markey, M. Plank, W. Kiefer, C. Painter, M. Wuthrich SECOND ROW: C. Boyd, G. Barr, R. Hart, P. L. Wertman, G. Vines, D. Tucker.

JUNIOR GIRLS' ATHLETIC CLUB

For junior high girls only,

Is this club of feminine sports' fans;

Starting out on the road that leads to an "A,"

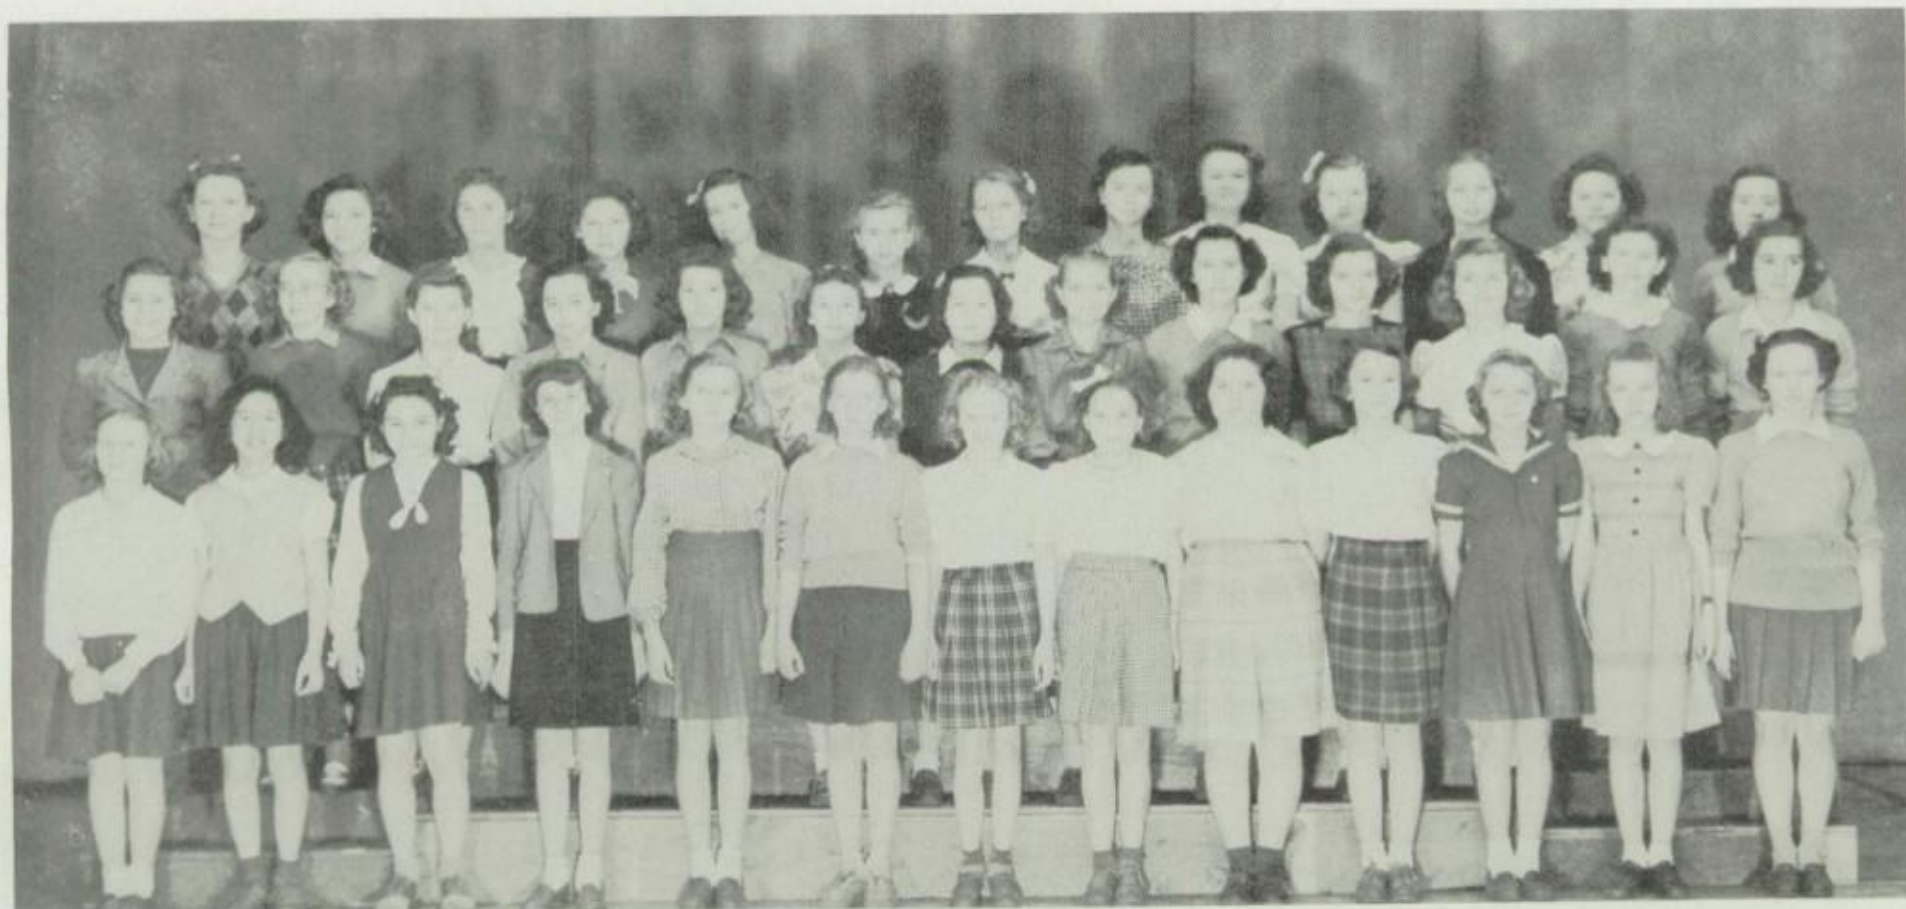

They earn points in kickball and baseball.

During the long winter afternoons,

Teams of eager, would-be All-Stars

Practice basketball, and hold meetings—

They are the Junior G.A.C.

FIRST ROW: B. Clark, T. Quong, S. Murray, L. Zehner, J. Myers, C. Ewing, J. Gossett, B. Spore, E. Vanetta, R. A. Scott, C. Phillips, E. Hazlett, E. Echelberger SECOND ROW: R. Kohout, J. Chorpene, L. SENIOR GIRLS' ATHLETIC CLUB

A common love of active sports

Brings these girls together after

School to go on hikes, compete

In teams, and earn a coveted "A."

Bowling, ping pong, and badminton;

Baseball, soccer, and basketball;

Meetings, parties, and dances—

These are G.A.C.

FIRST ROW: J. Toberen, J. Otter, D. Ryland, C. Bixler, M. Russell, M. Shanefelter, B. Preston, D. Rickle, P. Blumenschein, P. James, I. Cothren, M. McWilliams, A. Jackson, V. Brownson SECOND ROW: E. JUNIOR HI-Y

"Come on, fellas, Hi-Y tonight!"

"Hey, let's have that roll call!"

"Get in line, there, you're not eating at home!"

"You three guys are the clean-up committee!"

The air is full of these shouts

As the Junior Hi-Y boys

Pile into the "Y," settling themselves

For a pot-luck—or just the evening's business.

JACK BOEH PRESIDING

HI-Y HOP

FIRST ROW: Mr. Purdy, adviser, M. McKinley, sergeant at arms; L. Wright, secretary; J. Tharp, president; H. Cross, treasurer, C. Martin, chaplain

 ABSENT: D. Sharr, B. Patterson, D. Rader, D. Lingle, N. Dessenberg.

SENIOR HI-Y

Take a look at a Hi-Y pin.

What do you see there?

Not just a piece of jewelry

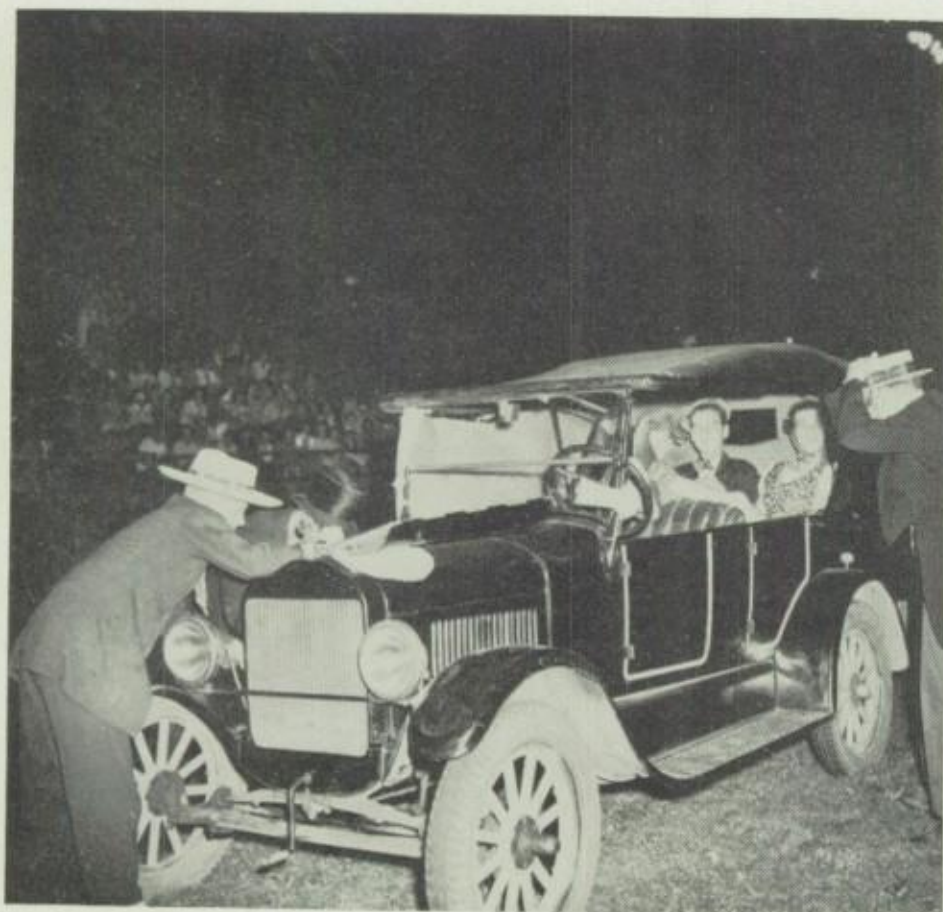

But the embodiment of four ideals:

Clean scholarship—honesty in school;

Clean sportsmanship—fairness in athletics;

Clean speech—decency in conversation;

Clean living—self-discipline in every-day life.

WHEN PA WAS COURTIN' MA

SPEAKER'S NIGHT—CORPORAL HALL

KODA KLUB

Laughter and noise pour forth from Room 208

To tell the passer-by that the Koda Klub

Is settling itself to a pot-luck—

Or, at Christmas-time, to the repairing of toys.

These boys, through their work on paper drives,

Spraying projects, tree plantings,

And guard duty at football games,

Give worthy service to school and community.

FIRST ROW: J. Moneysmith, G. Weaver, R. Swindamin, B. Steiner, H. Morr, vice president; F. Wampfler SECOND ROW: R. Swaisgood, secretary; B. Harpster, B. Shoemaker, R. Boyer, D. Harpster, N. Gault THIRD ROW: Mr. Krill, R. Mason, C. Morr, president; G. Swinford, E. Houser, M. Hartsel, W. Hershler.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The man with the hoe is the boy

Who is learning today in F.F.A.

The meaning of erosion and rotation

And how a modern farm is operated.

He is this nation's backbone,

The filler of grocery baskets,

The feeder of nations, the boy with a dream—

The future farmer of America.

FIRST ROW: B. Gerwig, B. Barr, P. McInerney, D. Moorman, D. Miller, R. Ryland, R. Steigerwalt, treasurer SECOND ROW: B. Jenkin, W. Brownson, L. Wallace, D. Hiner, E. Nelson, H. Swinford, C. Weaver THIRD ROW: G. Davis, J. Sloan, D. Swaisgood, C. Milheim, H. Jones, C. Goon, D. Lindecamp.

MODERN MISS

Modern Misses of today—

Modern women of tomorrow!

To learn more about the domestic side of life,

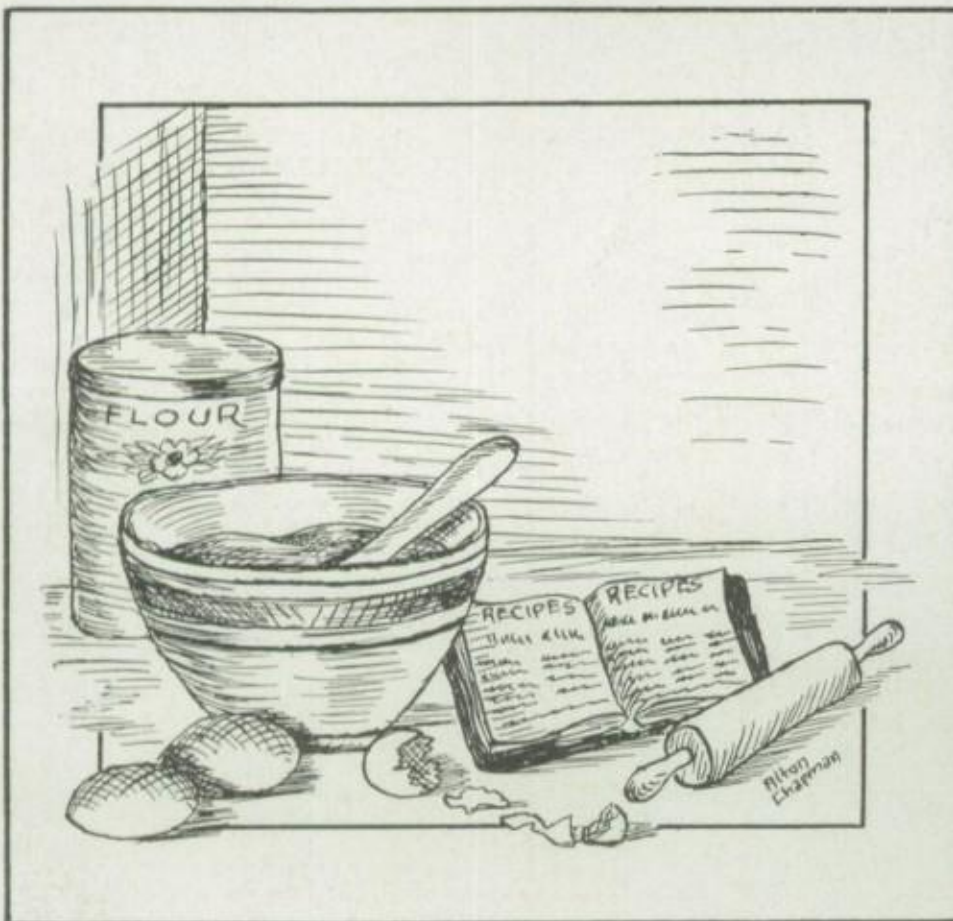

These girls are banded together.

Their eager minds enter into lively discussions

Of their dream homes and kitchens,

While their skillful hands concoct

Delicious rabbit suppers and tempting box lunches.

THIS WAY

FIRST ROW: Miss Dinsmore, adviser; N. Copeland, M. Muck, B. Clark, C. Cordell, C. Norris, C. Marsh SECOND ROW: E. Arnold, B. Whitcomb, R. Tucker, K. Thompson.

JUNIOR HIGH HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The mysteries of an eggbeater,

And how to measure flour,

Are all unveiled for and by

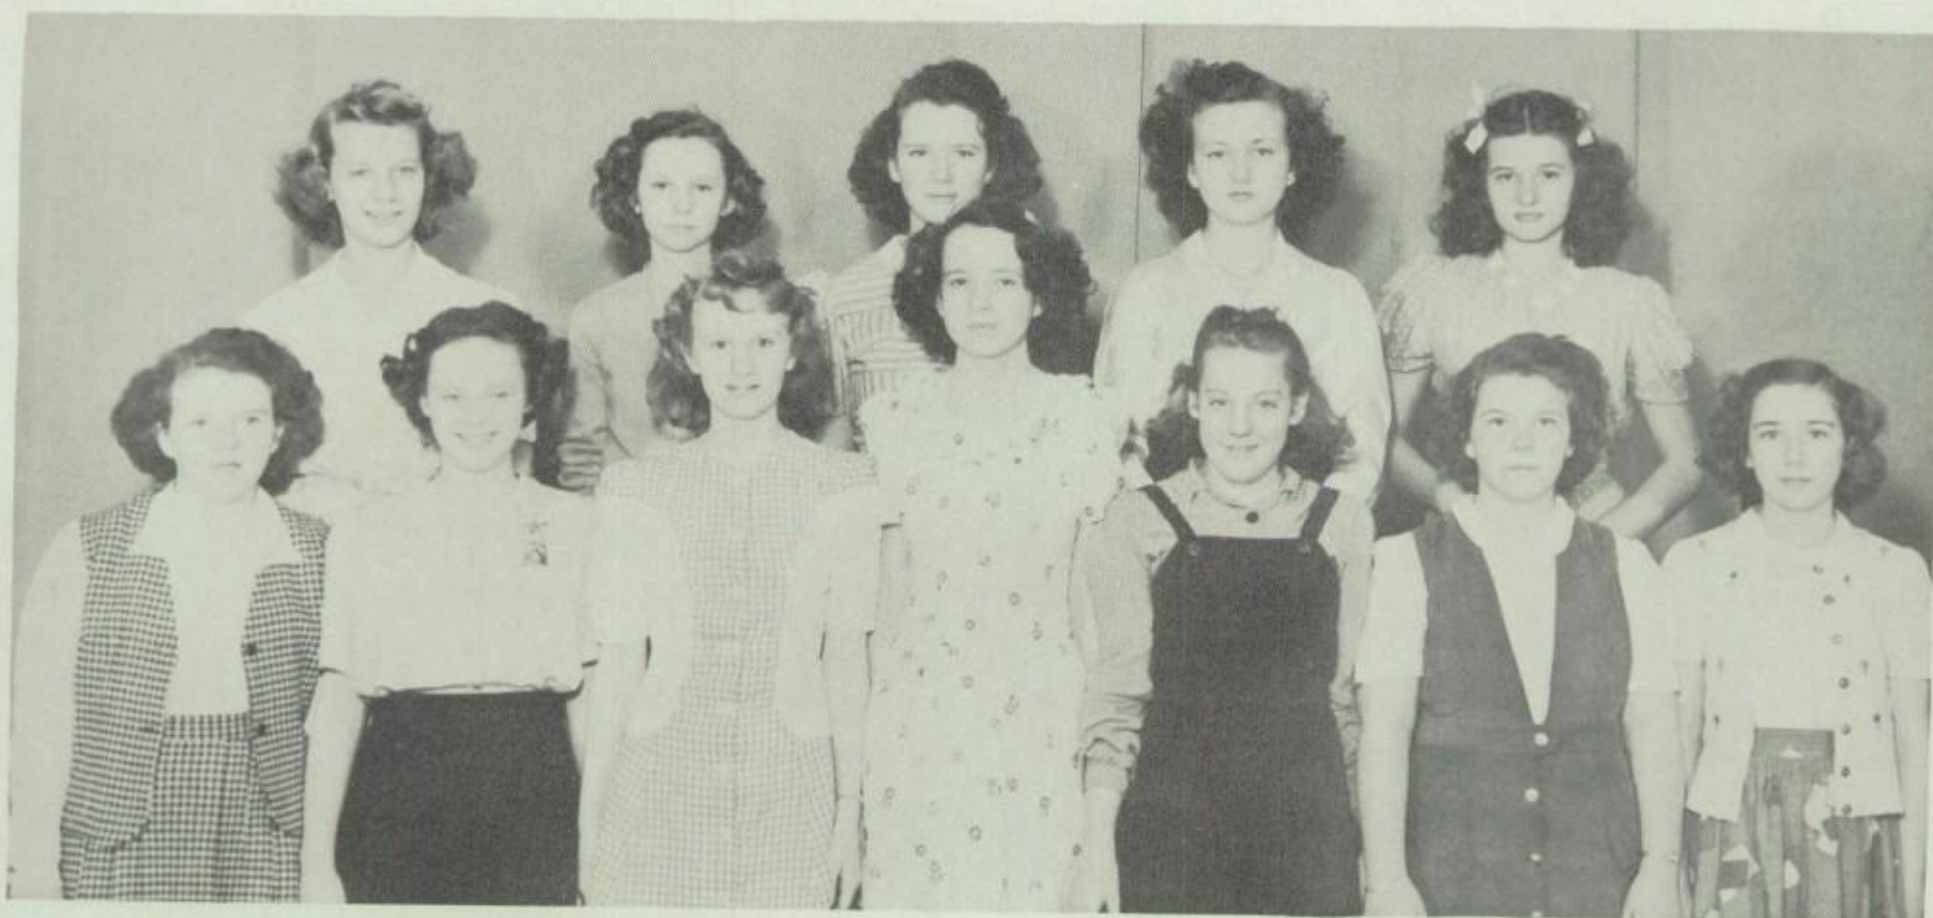

The Junior High Home Ec Club.

Parties—how to act as hostess

And cook refreshments on the side,

And how to count the calories and stitches,

Are skills that these girls learn.

JUNIOR ENGLISH CLUB

To seventh graders Junior English Club

Means experience in speaking and acting

Through amateur-night programs

And the traditional Christmas assembly.

"The Birds' Christmas Carol"—this year's play—

Will linger long in the memories

Of these young hopefuls as a trial by fire

Against the day when they will be Thespians.

FRENCH CLUB

"Parlez vous? mais oui, me too!"

Let's go to French Club together.

Let's read French novels and plays,

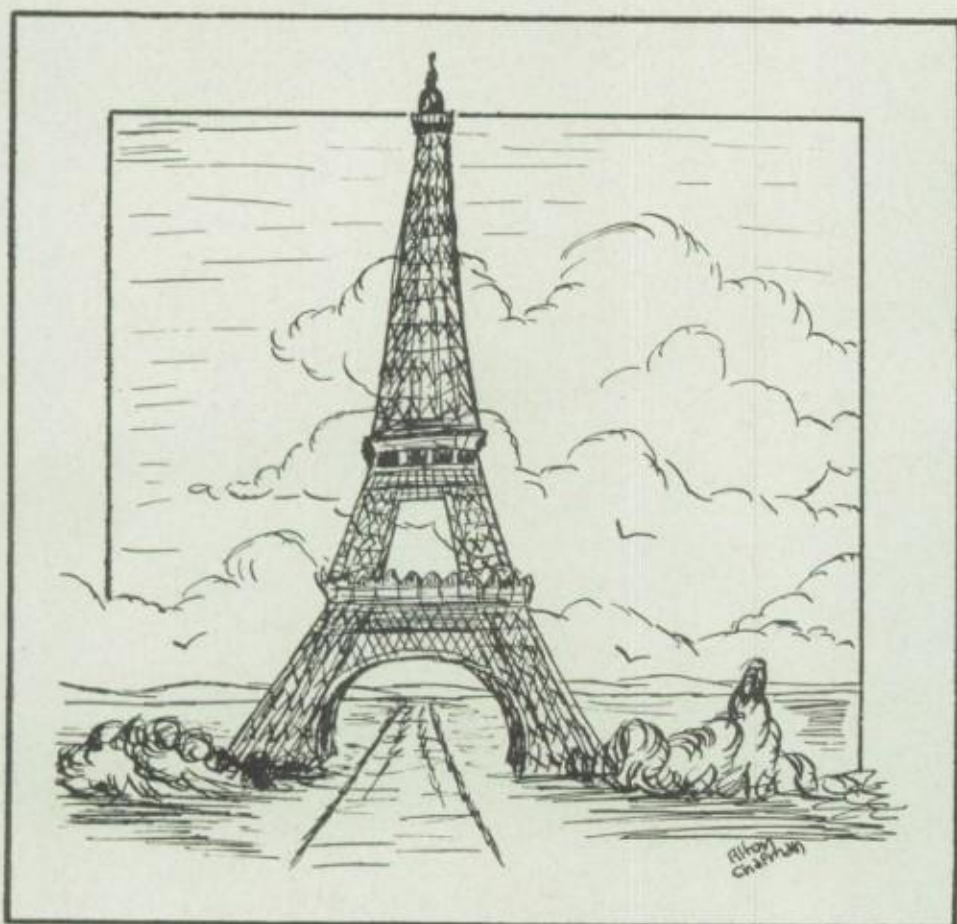

Discuss Paree and sing La Marseillaise.

We both love French, so let's speak it;

At parties I'll get to know you better;

At meetings we'll learn French lore and history—

"Parlez vous? mais oui! me too."

ART CLUB

With easel in hand and brush nearby,

Art Club members learn more fully

The thrill of a captured image on the canvas;

The creation of something beautiful.

These artists like to get together

To discuss their common interest,

To enjoy themselves through picnics and hikes;

Sketching trips and viewing art collections of others.

Coach Audrus L. Buckner summons 45 gridders for opening sessions August 21 . . . Twilight practices are staged with only five lettermen to build around as unpredictable season is foreseen . . .

A's try out famous T-formation to gain wins in two practice tilts with Loudonville 21-7 and 14-7 . . .

Halfback Frank Glasser dents car fender on end run as Ashland blasts Willard 19-7 in season's opener . . .

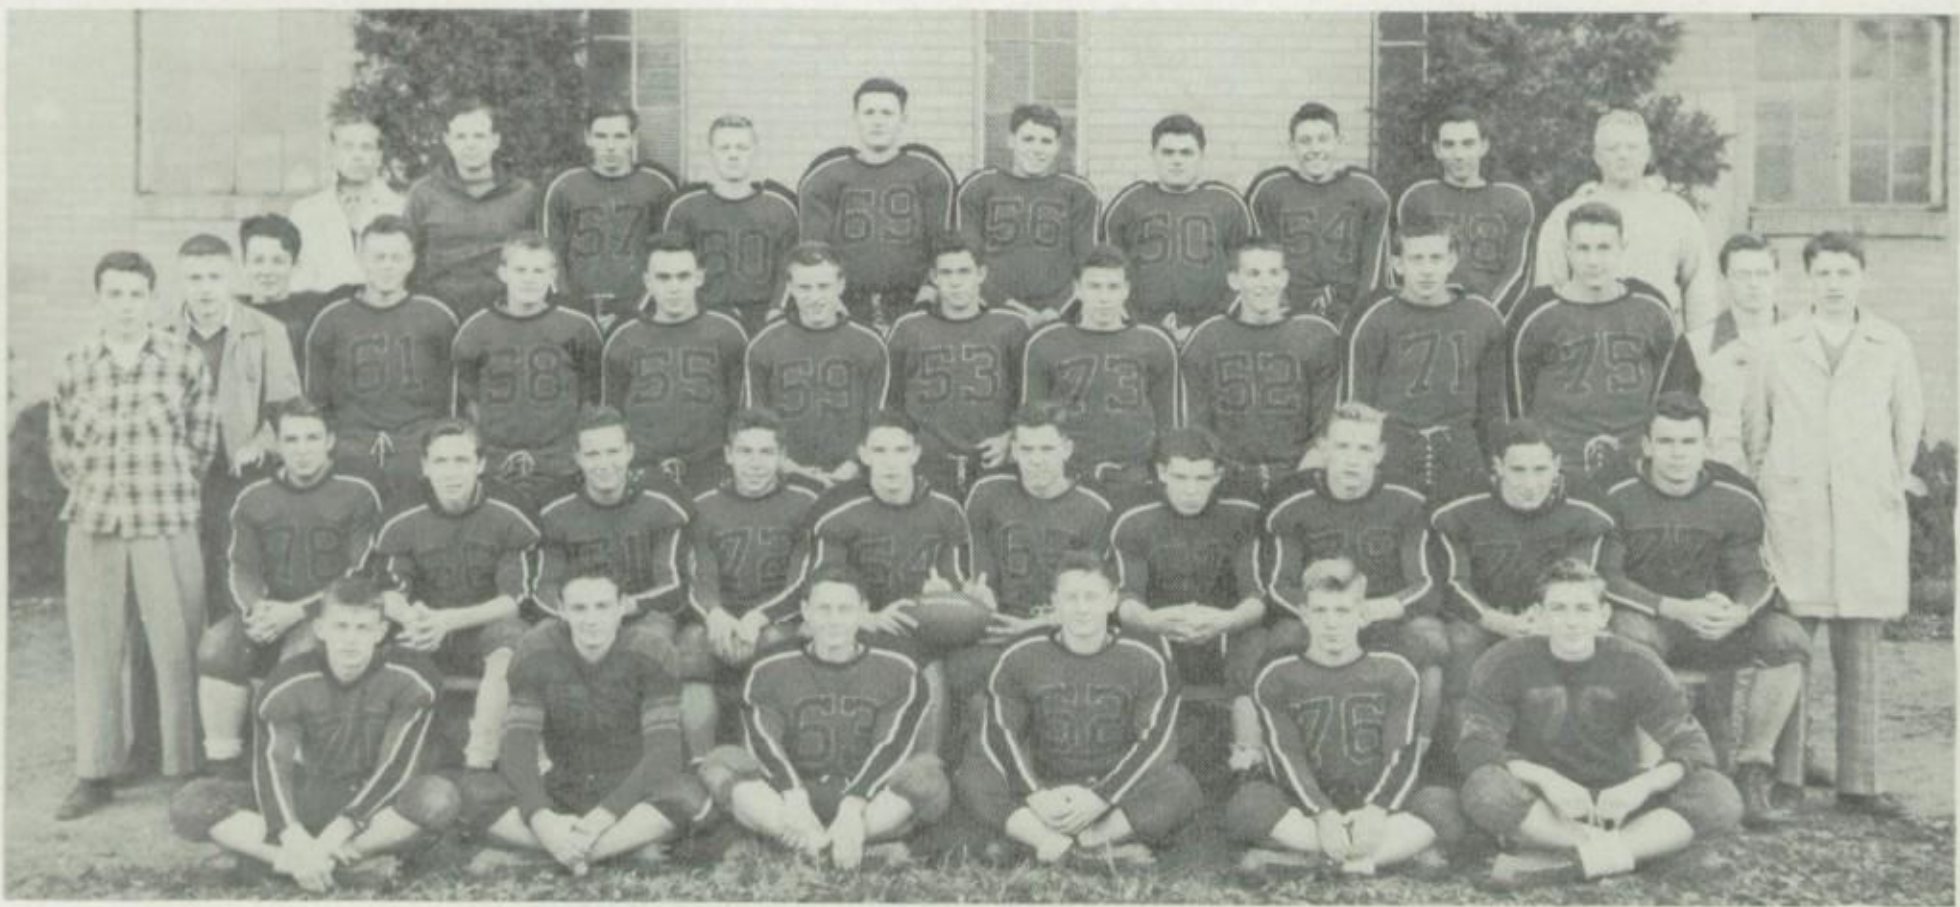

A's brush up on blocking and tackling in preparation for tough battle with Boys' Industrial School . . . Ashland's T-formation outmaneuvers B. I. S. as A's romp to second straight win 26-0 . . .

Gridders handicapped by injuries as they open N. C. O. title chase against Bucyrus . . . Nevertheless, against hapless Redmen's inexperienced team, Ashland's steam-powered scoring machine sets N. C. O. scoring record 71-13 . . .

One of Ohio's oldest gridiron rivalries dating back to 1909 is expected to end when Shelby matches strength with undefeated Orange and Black . . . Season's largest crowd sees Ashland edge Whippets 14-6 in a rugged battle . . .

Jinxing obstacle faces A's in Wooster game—Coach Buckner's failure to win five straight since becoming head coach in 1940 . . . But Buckner's 1945 eleven breaks jinx by plowing the Generals under with an effective mixed passing and running attack 19-6, to become the second grid team in Ashland High history to win five in a row . . .

Undefeated A's are up against big test of the year as they take the field against Marion Harding . . . Ace speed merchant Frank Glasser's injury in opening quarter clouds A's hopes . . . Marion intercepts pass in second period to gain first down on Ashland 2 . . . A's display great line play in repelling Beach, Harding fullback, for three downs, but falter on fourth, and the A's are spilled 6-0, for first setback of season . . .

"A" GIRLS

*A gleaming orange "A" against a white background
Distinguishes these girls,
Whose athletic prowess and determination
Have earned for them this coveted award.*

*Through spring showers and fall frosts,
They have ventured on foot-weary bikes
And struggled to the Y-field, until
They receive their heart's desire, their letter.*

LEADERS

*A dozen pink-suited juniors and seniors
Are Miss Cragwall's aids, the Leaders.
Six periods a day, they act
As referees, score-keepers, timers,
And generally assist in the Everyday gym problems.*

ARMY-NAVY ALL-STARS

*The players are tense; the referee is ready;
The whistle is blown—
The valiant Army, pitted against a fighting Navy
Begin the battle of the All-Stars!
The air is full of the cries,
"Come on, Bix, put that one in!"
"Look at Gordon going down that floor!"
The competition is keen and the going
Is tough, until, with a burst of speed,*

*Bixler
Nardini
Byrnes*

*The Navy gains a lead over the Army
And finishes the game as the victor
With the score 33-24.
The sixteen girls whose athletic abilities
Have gained them the honors of being All-Stars
Have worked diligently for this position
Since the seventh grade.
Their feet have known the basketball court
And their hearts the thrill of a victory.*

JUMP

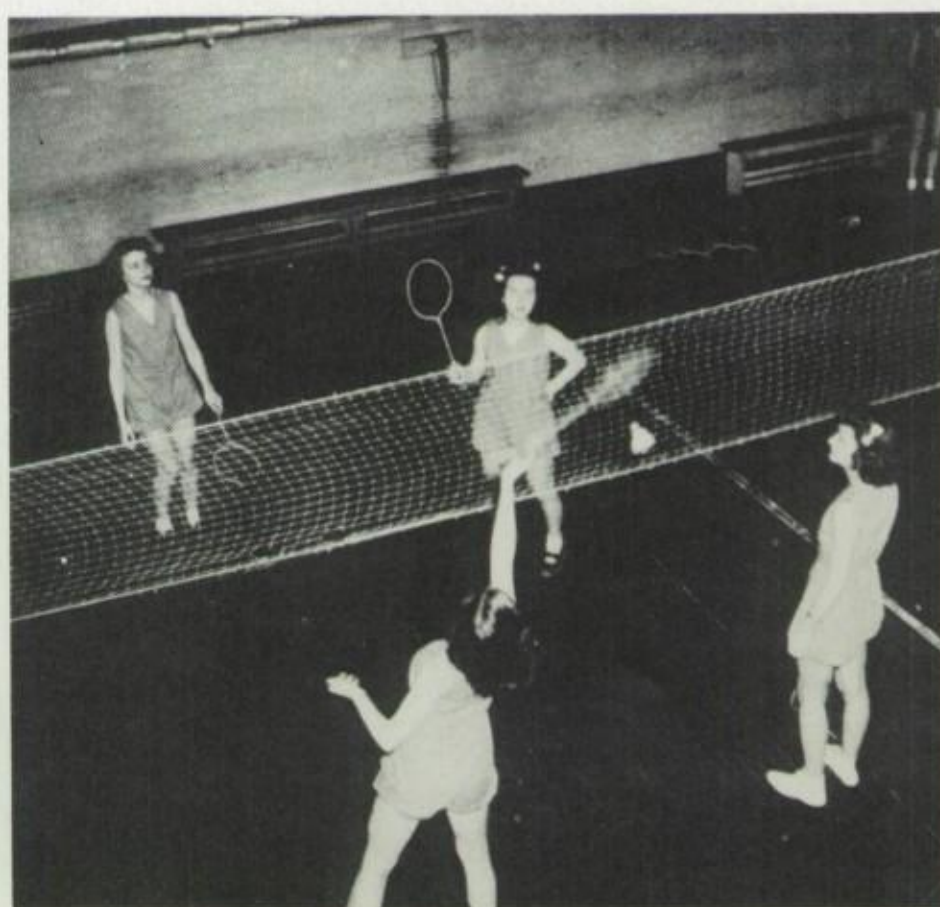

ANOTHER BASKET FOR THE NAVY

*Bowling alley jargon is fast becoming Everyday conversation to these G.A.C. girls.
The words strike, spare, and split
Take on vital meanings as this
Recreation becomes a favorite sport.
Then, too, there are the other recreational sports
Which command the interest and develop
The skills of these athletic-minded girls.*

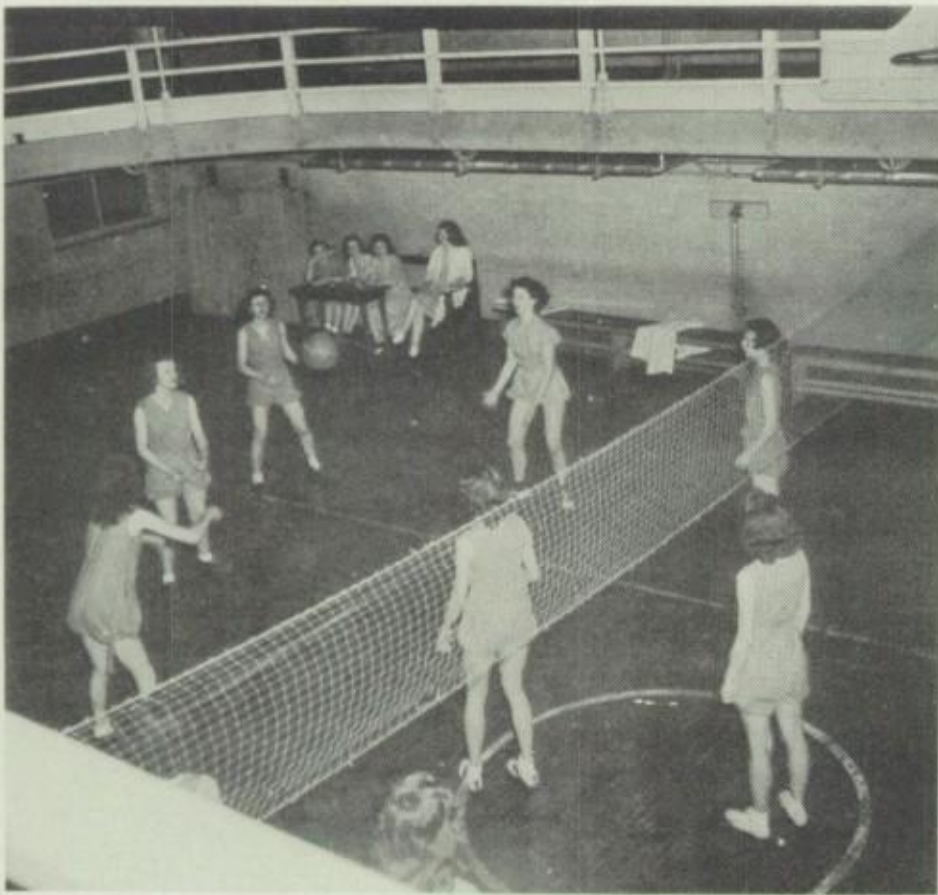

*Badminton, ping-pong, and deck tennis,
Make an excellent preparation for the Months to come that will be spent
By many girls on the tennis courts.
Though sore muscles and hidden aches
Are often paid for these sports,
The value and thrill of excelling in them
Is worth the price.*

FAY GETS ANOTHER STRIKE

TWO RACKETS ARE BETTER THAN ONE

SPIKE IT

CRAIGWALL, ALEXANDER, CLINGAMAN, AND CARPENTER

*A queue of foot-sore hikers
Trails along the dusty pavement;
In spring,
A high-flying baseball is
Silhouetted against the cloudless sky;
During the winter months the girls' gym
Is the scene of tireless practicing . . .*

*And shouts of "Get that volleyball
Over the net! Spike it!
Let's have a good serve!"
Through G. A. C. and gym classes,
Girls from the 7th to 12th grades
Become adept at these
And other fun-packed sports.*

I'M GETTING CORNS FOR MY "A"

ST-RIKE

There are dances we've been to,

Assemblies we've seen,

Parties where we've had fun.

There are so many other highlights

That ask to be remembered—

The first snow we plowed through

Last winter—

The sparkling first days of spring

When we sat on the lawn and wishfully

Dreamed about summer.

There are those play rehearsals we clowned through—

Those painful but irreplaceable

Class and club initiations.

These are the things—these and so many

Other memorable incidents

Which will never let us

Forget our school.
